

Assessment program

| Certificate     | Payroll administration                                  |  |  |  |
|-----------------|---|--|--|--|
| Diploma(s)      | Practical Diploma in Payroll Administration (PDL®)      |  |  |  |
| Exam            | Personnel, Organisation & Communication level 4         |  |  |  |
| Level           | Similar to level 4 MBO (secondary vocational education) |  |  |  |
| Version         | 1.0   |  |  |  |
| Valid from      | 01-09-23  |  |  |  |
| Established on  | 01-12-22  |  |  |  |
| Established by  | Associatie voor Examinering                             |  |  |  |
| Particularities | No particularities                                      |  |  |  |

Attainment and test criteria () = See appendix for explanation K = Knowledge questions C = Comprehension questions P = Practical questions A = Analytical auestions Α Organisation Κ 1.1 The candidate can name the characteristics of the following entities: Х • NV, BV, CV, association, foundation, cooperation • companies in the form of a natural person and/or legal person 1.2 The candidate can recognise the different organisational structures. *) Χ 1.3 The candidate can explain the difference between tasks, responsibilities, х and authorities. 1.4 The candidate can explain the motives for dividing labour in relation to a х vertical and horizontal division of labor.*) 1.5 The candidate can explain the way in which job segregation takes place. Х 1.6 The candidate can indicate the advantages and disadvantages of job х segregation. 1.7 The candidate can explain the implications of horizontal monitoring by Х the Dutch Tax Office. The candidate can recognise strategic, tactical, and operational 1.8 х objectives and decisions. 1.9 The candidate knows what project-based working entails. *) Х 1.10 The candidate can explain the importance of project-based work. Х 1.11 The candidate can explain the relationship between payroll х administration, accounting administration and HR. Professional aspects Κ C Ρ Α 2.1 The candidate can explain the importance and the consequences of their Х own actions as a payroll administrator for the accounting administration. 2.2 The candidate can explain the importance and the consequences of their х own actions as a payroll administrator for the contact with external parties. *) 2.3 The candidate can indicate the importance and consequences of the Х confidentiality of data, as stipulated in the Data Breach Reporting Obligation (Meldplicht Datalekken), the General Data Protection Regulation and internal and company-specific regulations. 2.4 The candidate can explain the terms ESS, MSS, SAAS/web-based and Х single sign on. K C Р Α Personnel The candidate is able to explain in general the following models and 3.1 concepts relating to HR: Human Resource Accounting (HRA) • roles of Ulrich *) reward systems and job evaluation systems **) The candidate can interpret the financial consequences of applying 3.2 Х employee benefits. *)

|   | _   |  |   |   |   |   |
|---|---|--|---|---|---|---|
| 4 | Accour  | nting administration data processing   | K | С | Р | Α |
|   | 4.1   | The candidate can explain the structure of the balance sheet and the profit and loss account.  |   | Х |   |   |
|   | 4.2   | The candidate can recognise items such as the balance sheet account, suspense account, expense account and revenue account based on the decimal chart of accounts.   |   | х |   |   |
|   | 4.3 The candidate can create a payroll journal entry from the data from the payroll administration.*) |  |   |   | Х |   |
|   | 4.4   | The candidate can indicate the consequences for the structure of the payroll journal entry of changes within the payroll administration.                             |   | Х |   |   |
| 5 | Comm  | unication  | K | C | Р | Α |
|   | 5.1   | The candidate is able to explain information related to the payroll administration and its consequences to the target group using the 5W model or the AIDA model. *) |   |   | X |   |
|   | 5.2   | The candidate can recognise and explain the following aspects of a message:  • business aspect  • expressive aspect  • relational aspect  • appealing aspect         |   | x |   |   |
|   | 5.3   | The candidate can explain and assess the effectiveness of interview techniques. *)   |   | Х |   |   |
|   | 5.4   | The candidate can recognise the following advisory roles:  |   | Х |   |   |

|           | ria explanation   |
|-----------|---|
| Test      | Explanation   |
| criterion |   |
| 1.2       | line organisation   |
|           | functional organisation   |
|           | line and staff organisation   |
|           | matrix organisation   |
|           | project organisation  |
|           | divisional organisation   |
|           | network organisation  |
| 1.4       | Motives: efficiency, supervision, social, customer-focused, and sector-oriented                   |
| 1.9       | Think of the management aspects, roles, version management, planning method                       |
| 2.2       | Dutch Tax Office, insurers, pension funds, Arbodienst (occupational health and safety service),   |
|           | luwv , , , , , , , , , , , , , , , , , , ,  |
| 3.1       | *) Ulrich's roles are based on the most common roles:   |
|           | • Strategic partner   |
|           | Change agent  |
|           | • Employee champion   |
|           | Administrative expert   |
|           | ) Reward systems are based on:  |
|           | terms and conditions of employment: primary, secondary, tertiary                                  |
|           | • cafeteria model   |
|           |   |
|           | • performance-related pay   |
| 3.2       | • time-based pay  |
| 3.2       | The candidate must be able to name the advantages and disadvantages of employee benefits          |
|           | and the consequences for employer and employee. The candidate does not have to make any           |
|           | calculations.   |
|           | It relates to the following employee benefits:  |
|           | • transport (no work-related costs scheme)  |
|           | training opportunities  |
|           | cafeteria model   |
|           | • profit sharing  |
|           | • types of leave  |
|           | share package   |
|           | It relates to the following consequences:   |
|           | final levy due by the employer  |
|           | level of the holiday allowance and 13th month   |
|           | daily wage when determining a benefit in the event of incapacity for work or unemployment         |
|           | employer charges  |
|           |   |
| 4.3       | The candidate does not have to make any calculations in prior to creating a journal entry.        |
| 5.1       | Target group: people who have no specific knowledge of payroll administration                     |
| 1         | 5W model: who, what, where, why, and when   |
|           | AIDA model: attention, interest, desire, action   |
| 5.3       | Interview techniques:   |
| ]         | Asking questions, listening, summarising, and asking follow-up questions                          |
|           | • types of questions such as audit questions, closed questions, open questions, choice questions, |
|           | needs-based questions   |
|           | · ·   |
|           | • styles of conflict management   |
| I         | non-verbal communication  |

| Test matrix               |  |  |  |  |
|---------------------------|--|--|--|--|
| Diploma topic             | Payroll administration                             |  |  |  |
| Diploma(s)                | Practical Diploma in Payroll Administration (PDL®) |  |  |  |
| Exam                      | Personnel, Organisation & Communication level 4    |  |  |  |
| Version                   | 1.0  |  |  |  |
| Valid from                | 01-09-23   |  |  |  |
| Test form                 | Online exam  |  |  |  |
| Test duration             | 2 hours (120 minutes)                              |  |  |  |
| Total number of questions | 26   |  |  |  |
| Passed at                 | 55% of the total number of points to be earned *)  |  |  |  |
| Allowed resources         | Glossary, Calculator, Dictionary                   |  |  |  |

|       | Attainment criteria                       | Test Taxonomy of criteria Bloom |                             | question type )         |                   | Percentage of thetotal number ofpoints to beachieved ***) |              |                |     |
|-------|---|---------------------------------|-----------------------------|---------------------------|-------------------|---|--------------|----------------|-----|
|       |   | 1.1                             | Knowle                      | edge                      | close             | :d  |              |                |     |
|       |   | 1.2                             | Compreh                     | ension                    | close             | d   |              |                |     |
|       |   |                                 | 1.3                         | Compreh                   | ension            | opei  | ı            |                |     |
|       |   | 1.4                             | Comprehension               |                           | closed            |   |              |                |     |
|       | _   | 1.5                             | Compreh                     | ension                    | oper              | ı   |              |                |     |
| 1     | Organisation                              | 1.6                             | Compreh                     | ension                    | opei              | 1   | 33           | 3%             |     |
|       |   | 1.7                             | Compreh                     |                           | opei              | า   |              |                |     |
|       |   | 1.8                             | Compreh                     |                           | close             | d   |              |                |     |
|       |   | 1.9                             | Compreh                     |                           | opei              |   |              |                |     |
|       |   |                                 |                             | ension                    | oper              |   |              |                |     |
|       |   | 1.11                            | Compreh                     |                           | opei              |   |              |                |     |
|       |   | 2.1                             | Compreh                     |                           | open              |   |              |                |     |
| 2     | Professional aspects                      | 2.2                             | Comprehension Comprehension |                           | open              |   | 17%          |                |     |
| -     |   | 2.3                             |                             |                           | open              |   |              |                |     |
|       |   | 2.4                             | Compreh                     | ension                    | oper              | า   |              |                |     |
| 3     | Personnel                                 | Rersonnel 3.1 Comprehension     |                             | open                      |                   | 10%   |              |                |     |
| 3     |   | 3.2                             | Compreh                     | ension                    | open              |   | 1070         |                |     |
|       | Accounting administration data processing | 4.1                             | Compreh                     | ension                    | close             | d   |              |                |     |
| 1     |   | 4.2                             | Comprehension               |                           | closed            |   | 20%          |                |     |
| 4     |   | 4.3                             | Practical                   |                           | open              |   |              |                |     |
|       |   | 4.4 Comprehension ope           |                             | 1                         | 1                 |   |              |                |     |
|       |   | 5.1                             | Practi                      | ical                      | oper              | 1   |              |                |     |
| _     | Communication                             | 5.2                             | Compreh                     | Comprehension             |                   | open  |              | 000/           |     |
| 5     |   | 5.3                             | Comprehension               |                           | open              |   | 20%          |                |     |
|       |   | 5.4 Comprehension               |                             | close                     | closed            |   | 1            |                |     |
| er    | Total number of questions per candidate   | 0.2                             | Part knowledge              | 2%                        | PartPractical | 17%   | Partopen | 85%            |     |
| Other |   |                                 | 26                          | Partcomprehension | 81%               | Partanalytical  | -            | Partclosed | 15% |

*) Someone with 54.99% of the total number of points to be obtained has not passed.

<sup>**)</sup> An open question is a question where a candidate has to formulate an answer himself. In a closed question, a candidate chooses from the given options.

<sup>***)</sup> The percentages can deviate by 5%.